Overview

- Allingham Road is located in the South Park area of Reigate, an historic Surrey market town positioned close to Junction 8 of the M25. Trains to central London, Gatwick & Brighton are accessible via Redhill.
- There is a Co-op store nearby, together with a Morrisons and M&S Food Store conveniently placed within the bounds of Reigate's town centre. Reigate also offers a wide choice of pubs, bars, restaurants and cafes for a variety of tastes.
- An even wider choice of facilities can be found in the town centres of Redhill, Horsham, Crawley and for that touch of seaside air, Brighton.
- Reigate station offers a typical off-peak service of two trains per hour to Redhill with regular links thereafter to Gatwick & London Bridge. Alternatively travel west to Dorking or Guildford.
- For car users, junction 8 of the M25 is within easy reach as are A-class roads to Redhill, Gatwick and beyond.
- Reigate is located at the foot of the North Downs, close to Redhill & Gatwick. The town is surrounded by Metropolitan Green Belt Land.
- On a local level of importance to young families are the number of nearby primary and secondary schools as well as excellent faith and independent schools.
